Education

- 2003 - 07
 - PhD in Geography (Examined Dec. 2007) - University College London, UK.
 - 2000 - 03
 - BSc (1st class Hons) in Geography - University of Manchester, UK.

Awards Honors and Distinctions

- 2016
 - Visiting Professor Ritsumeikan University, Japan.
 - Europe, Middle East and Africa Editor - Transactions in GIS.
- 2014
 - Chair of the Royal Geographical Society (with IBG) GIScience Research Group.
 - Associate Editor of the Spatial Analytics Book Series (Sage).
- 2013
 - Honorary Visiting Researcher Ritsumeikan University, Japan.
- 2012
 - Founding Editor in Chief of Regional Studies, Regional Science.
 - Book Review Editor for Environment and Planning B.
 - Chair GIS Research UK (GISRUK) 2013 Annual Conference.
- 2011
 - Shortlisted for Scopus Young Researcher Award (Social Science).
 - Royal Geographical Society Gildea Award.
- 2010
 - Chair of the Output Area Classification User Group at the Royal Statistical Society.
- 2009
 - Winner GIS Research UK Annual Conference Mashup Competition.
- 2008
 - Chair of the Royal Geographical Society Quantitative Methods Research Group.
- 2006
 - Winner GIS Research UK Annual Conference Poster Competition.
- 2004
 - Winner UCL Graduate School Poster Competition.
- 2003
 - Winner of Manchester Geographical Association Dissertation Prize.

Research Interests

My research has extended a tradition of area classification within Geography where I have developed an empirically informed critique of the ways in which geodemographic methods can be refined for effective yet ethical use in public resource allocation applications. This research has developed from substantive interests around the social, spatial and temporal dimensions of access inequalities in Higher Education, digital exclusion, aspects of retail and school commuting behaviours. My most recent work has focused on understanding how both fast and slow human dynamics can be understood within urban systems and their hierarchies, developing new methods of mapping these geographies at fine spatio-temporal scale. More generally I am interested in how geographic data science can be utilised in activities related to the public understanding of science, and I am also an advocate of open source data, software and publishing.

Academic Roles

- 2015 -
 - Professor - University of Liverpool, Department of Geography and Planning.
 - 2013 - 14
 - Reader - University of Liverpool, Department of Geography and Planning.
 - 2010 - 13
 - Lecturer - University of Liverpool, Department of Geography and Planning.
 - 2005 - 2010
 - Research Fellow - University College London, Department of Geography.
 - 2003-2005
 - Research Assistant - University College London, Department of Geography.

Research Income and Grants

This following section provides a summary of research income to date which totals £15,262,118, with £911,511 as Principal Investigator (PI) and £14,350,607 as Co-Investigator (Co-I).

- 2016
 - ESRC CDT New Forms of Data. (Co-I) £6,100,000
 - ESRC Northern Regional Data Facility. (PI) £309,681
 - ESRC Smart Street Sensor. (Co-I) £301,681
- 2014
 - ESRC Retail Business Data Safe. (Co-I) £6,117,615
 - ESRC The analysis of names from the 2011 Census of Population. (Co-I) £170,553
 - ESRC Population Change and Geographic Inequalities in the UK, 1971-2011. (Co-I) £198,315
 - University of Liverpool Big Data Visualisation of Broadband Equity. (PI) £4,000
- 2013
 - ESRC Mapping Retail Sector Business Rate Inequalities. (PI) £58,404
 - ESRC The e- Resilience of British Retail Centres: Creating a nation model of retail area resilience to online shopping. (PI) £127,991
 - ESRC Leveraging the Google Cloud to Estimate Individual Level CO2 Emissions Linked to the School Commute. (PI) £118,481

- 2012
 - ESRC Using Secondary Data to Measure, Monitor and Visualise Spatio-Temporal Uncertainties in Geodemographic Classification. (PI) £182,397
 - ESRC A Spatial Microsimulation Model of Co-morbidity. (Co-I) £198,485
 - EU INTERREG PURE HUBS. (Co-I) £679,365
 - ESRC Supporting undergraduate teaching in quantitative geography: making the connection between schools, universities and workplaces. (Co-I) £99,000
 - Royal Geographical Society CO2 emissions and the commute to school. (PI) £2,900
 - University of Liverpool North American Geodemographics. (PI) £5,000
- 2011
 - Royal Geographical Society Exploring the Geography of Geographers. (PI) £1,500
 - University of Liverpool Alternate crime mapping visualisations with National Police Improvement Agency. (PI) £5,000
 - University of Liverpool Integration of school commuting data with vehicle emissions. (PI) £2,000
 - ESPON Test the practical use of existing methods and tools for Territorial Impact Assessment in European region. (Co-I) £308,123
- 2010
 - AHRC Preparing a baseline from which to measure the Big Society. (Co-I) £30,039
- 2009
 - ESRC Knowledge Transfer Partnership with the Local Futures Group Ltd to develop state of the art web mapping and community interaction technology. (Co-I) £147,431
- 2008
 - ESRC Spatial Interaction Modelling, Geodemographics and Widening Participation in the Higher Education Sector. (PI) £94,157

Invited Presentations at Research and Professional Seminars, Conferences and Workshops

2016

Human Dynamics and Urban Structure. UBDC, Glasgow University, Glasgow.

Urban Analytics - City Structure and Function. CURDS, Newcastle University, Newcastle.

Consumer Data Research and Census Enumeration. Office for National Statistics, Southampton for National Statistics, Southampton.

E-Resilience and Retail. Said Business School, University of Oxford, Oxford.

Education Panel. ESRI UK Conference, London.

Geographic Data Science New Forms of Data and Policing. Crime, Policing and Citizenship Closing Event, London.

Keynote: Geography and Access. Brilliant Club, Stoke on Trent.

Keynote: Teaching to the Converted: From GIS to Geographic Data Science. OSGIS 2016, Ostrava, Czech Republic.

Turning Big Data Into Information. University of Cambridge / Princes Teaching Trust, Cambridge.

2015

Geographic Data Science and School Markets. Oxford-Man institute, University of Oxford, Oxford.

Geodemographics in an Academic Context. University of Liverpool, Liverpool.

Developments in Spatial Data Visualisation. Said Business School, University of Oxford, Oxford.

Reproducible Research: Open Methods and Data. Regional Studies Association, Sheffield.

2014

What is so Big about Big Data? Some Observations on Open Data and Systems. National University of Maynooth, Ireland.

Cities and Context: The Codification of Small Areas through Geodemographic Classification. Code and the City Conference, Ireland.

The Geodemographics of Use and Engagement with the Internet. Market Research Society, London.

Changed Face of GIS – Curriculum Challenges and Reproducible Methods. Irish Organisation for Geographic Information, Ireland.

Advances in the Geodemographic Study of Population and Place. University of Oxford, Oxford Institute of Ageing.

The Past Present and Future of Spatial Analytics with Big Data. Department of Geography, University of Leeds, Leeds.

Geodemographics and the Internal Structure of Cities. Cardiff University, Cardiff.

2013

Advances in Geographic Information Science and the Population of Blackpool. Blackpool Geographical Association, Blackpool.

Geodemographics and Higher Education. Kings College London, London.

2012

Advances in Geographic Visualisation. University of Oxford, Oxford.

2011

Advances in Geographic Visualisation. University of Oxford, Oxford.

Spatial Analysis using the National Pupil Database. PLASC/PLUG User Conference, London.

2010

Advances in Geographic Visualisation. University of Oxford, Oxford.

Thought Provoking Applications of OAC: Widening Participation in Higher Education.. LARIA: Output Area Classification: Current and Potential Uses, Birmingham.

2009

Geodemographic Visualisation. Society for Location Analysis, London.

Geographic Visualisation: Neogeography and Area Classification. OACUG Geodemographic Visualisation Conference, London.

Introduction to the Output Area Classification Online. ESRC Research Methods Workshop: Measuring Segregation: Methods, Tools and Data, Bristol.

Public Engagement: The London Profiler, Public Profiler and the E-Society Classification.. S4 Conference, London.

Putting Social Care Commissioning at the Heart of Personalisation. Local Government Information Unit, London.

2008

Communicating Geodemographics. Market Research Society, London.

Research Frontiers: Neogeography and GIS applications for Spatial Decision Making. University of Nottingham, Nottingham.

What are Geographic Information Systems for the Google generation?. 3rd ESRC Research Methods Festival, Oxford.

2007

The Geography of Classification: Geodemographic Analysis and Mapping. Teacher Schools Network Master Class, Norwich.

A Meritocratic Market? Tailoring Geodemographics for use in Higher Education Widening Participation. University of Bristol, Bristol.

Open Source Geodemographics: Applications for Education. University of Sheffield, Sheffield.

Turning Data into Information: Geodemographic Applications. Ritsumeikan University, Kyoto, Japan.

2006

Demonstration of Institutional and Subject Geodemographic Profiling. University College London, London.

2005

Marketing a New Market?. UCAS Admission Officers Conference, Keele.

2004

Geodemographics for Education. UCAS Admission Officers Conference, Reading.

Tailored Geodemographics - The Construction of an Educational Mosaic. LSDA Research Conference, London.

Professional and Administrative Activities

- Europe, Middle East and Africa Editor - Transactions in GIS (2015-).
- Editor in Chief - Regional Studies and Regional Science (First Open Access journal from Taylor and Francis) (2013-)
- Book Reviews Editor - Environment and Planning B (2012 - 15).

Administrative Experience

- Course director - MSc Applied Geographical Information Science (2014-16).
- Management of Department of Geography and Planning website (2012-13).
- REF internal reviewer (2012-13).
- Undergraduate admissions (strategic) (2012-13).
- Year tutor (2011-12).
- REF internal reviewer (2011-12).
- Staff student liaison committee (2010-11).

External Examination Experience

- University of Warwick: MSc in Big Data and Digital Futures, and MSc in Urban Informatics and Analytics (2015-).
- University College London: MSc Geospatial Analysis (2016-).

Organisational Roles within Professional Societies

- Chair of the GIScience Research Group at the Royal Geographical Society with the Institute of British Geographers (2014–15).
- Chair of the Output Area Classification User Group at the Royal Statistical Society (2010-14).
- Chair of the Quantitative Methods Research Group at the Royal Geographical Society with the Institute of British Geographers (2008-11).

Membership of Professional Societies

- Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society (2003 -).
- Member of the Association of American Geographers (2003 -).
- Member of the Regional Studies Association (2010 -).

Academic and Professional Duties

Referee on articles submitted to the following international journals:

Area; Environment and Planning B (Planning and Design); Computers, Environment and Urban Systems; International Journal of Health Geographics; International Journal of Pattern Recognition; Papers in Regional Science; Applied Spatial Analysis and Policy; Environmental Modelling; International Journal of Geographic Information Science; Educational Research Journal; URISA Journal; Journal of Maps; Journal of Urban Technology; PLOS One.

Conference and Seminar Organisation

- 2016
 - OSGIS 2016 Programme Committee.
- 2014
 - OSGIS 2014 Programme Committee.
- 2013
 - GIS Research UK Conference Chair (<http://liverpool.gisruk.org>).
 - GIS Ostrava 2013 Member of the Scientific Committee, Czech Republic
- 2012
 - OSGIS 2012 Programme Committee.
 - Session Organiser: New approaches in quantitative social geography: new data, new methods, new insights. Association of American Geographers Conference, New York.
- 2010
 - Making Efficiency Saving with OAC by Understanding Total Place. Output Area Classification User Conference, London.
 - Session Convenor The Spatial Dimensions of Health. Royal Geographical Society Annual International Conference, London.
- 2009
 - Session Convenor New Urban Geography: Evolving Area Classification for Socio-Spatial Generalisation. Royal Geographical Society Annual International Conference, Manchester, 26-28 August.
 - Organising committee for the 2010 GIS Research UK Conference. London, University College London.
 - Conference Organiser - Output Area Classification User Conference.

- 2006
 - Co-Organiser, Spatial Literacy in Teaching: Communicating GIScience, London.
 - Co-Organiser, Spatial Literacy, Student Recruitment and Widening Participation, London.

Impact and Knowledge Transfer

For each research project I have been involved with, a range of academic publications have been produced. In addition to these scholarly outputs, each project is typically accompanied with a website aiming to disseminate the findings more broadly and where possible to engage a wide public audience. These websites take a variety of different formats and are briefly detailed in the following section with evidence for their success measured in terms of press coverage.

Software

- gd (<http://rpubs.com/alexsingleton/gd>) - An R package for building, testing and visualisation of geodemographic classification.
- OAC Coder (<http://www.publicprofler.org/resources.php>) - Postcode profiling tool for the ONS Output Area Classification (downloaded over 700 times). ## Websites I have developed and/or manage a range successful websites created as part of activities associated with research grants. These websites have wide ranging purposes, including pedagogic resource dissemination, public participation in GIS or impact generation. Many of these sites have captured a wide and international audience. For example, the worldnames (worldnames.publicprofler.org) website has received over 2 million unique users from 200 countries since August 30 2008.
- www.policestreeets.co.uk - a new visualisation of crime data.
- rpubs.com/alexsingleton/ - R tutorials.
- www.educationprofler.org - School and catchment profiles with Google Maps.
- gbnames.publicprofler.org - 1881 and 1998 GB surname mapping website.
- worldnames.publicprofler.org - world surname mapping website.
- esociety.publicprofler.org - e-Society profiler website (search by postcode).
- www.onomap.org - name classification website.
- www.publicprofler.org - neighbourhood profiler website (search by postcode).
- www.areaclassification.org.uk - geodemographic news and teaching materials.
- www.alex-singleton.com - personal research blog.
